1. Suggested Books

your kids in holidays:

few tips which will engage

Books are a man's best friend. Buy different picture books, colouring books and story books for your child. Let the child do picture reading, colour the sheets in a colouring book and recall the characters and incidents of the story.

. Know your Home

Play different games with your kids to encourage them to express themselves freely and make them more responsible. It is going to increase their self-confidence and help them grow into independent and confident individuals. Collect things that belong to different rooms in the house and ask your child to name the objects and the name of the room to which they belong. Help them to place the things back in the right place.

WORD SEARCH (Circle the Sight words)

Word Search is a great game to build the vocabulary of the child.

This Summer Break you may play word search with the child on a regular basis.

Select a paragraph from a magazine, newspaper, storybook, etc.

The whole family could get together to search for a pre-decided set of words e.g. The, She, They, A.

The person in the family who searches/ spots the maximum number of words will be the winner.

Number Value Activity Counting is the building block of Mathematics which will develop the number concepts of the child.

In this activity, children will prepare 1-20 corn cobs (either using clay or paper cut outs) and number them from 1-20. They will then paste as many corn kernels (which can be made using clay or small newspaper balls) on the corn cob as per the number mentioned under each corn cob.

This activity can be done using buttons, beads, clay balls or paper balls according to the availability.

Celebrate Father's Day (17 June)

"A Dad is someone who holds you when you cry, scolds you when you break the rules, shines with pride when you succeed and has faith in you even when you fail"

Arrange a surprise party for your father with the help of your mother. You may prepare a sandwich and lemonade with your little hands. Make a cardand give it to your father.
